Section 1. The Union recognizes its responsibilities as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent of the employees within the bargaining unit and realizes that in order to provide maximum opportunities for continuing employment and fair compensation, the Employer must be able to operate efficiently. The Union, therefore, agrees to cooperate in the attainment of these goals and agrees to the following:

There shall be no discrimination by the Employer or the Union because of membership or non-membership in the Union. The Union agrees that neither it nor any of its officers or agents will engage in any Union activity which will interrupt or interfere with the operations of the Employer.

Section 3. Upon receipt of a lawfully executed, written authorization from an employee which may be revoked in writing at any time, in accordance with state law, the Employer agrees to deduct the regular monthly Union dues of such employee from his/her pay and remit such deduction by the fifteenth (15th) of the succeeding month to the official designated by the Union in writing to receive such deductions. The Union will notify the Employer in writing of the exact amount of such regular membership dues to be deducted.

The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any and all claims, suits, orders or judgments brought or issued against the Employer as a result of any action taken or not taken by the Employer under the provisions of this Article.

The parties agree to faithfully abide by the applicable provisions of the Act. Neither the Union, its officers or agents, nor any of the employees covered by this Agreement, will engage in, encourage, sanction, support or suggest any strikes, slowdowns, picketing, boycotting, mass resignations, mass absenteeism, the willful absence from one's position, work stoppage, or any such related activities as covered in Section 12 of the Act.

The Employer pledges that it will not engage in a lockout during the term of this Agreement as a result of a labor dispute with the Union.

ARTICLE 5 HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

The purpose of this Article is intended to define the normal hours of work, and shall not be construed as a guarantee of hours of work per day or days of work per week. Determination of daily and weekly hours of work shall be made by the Employer and the Department Head. The workweek starts at 12:01 AM on Sunday and ends at 12:00 Midnight the following Saturday.

The normal workweek will be Monday through Friday. The established working hours will provide for an unpaid lunch period.

Overtime. Overtime shall be paid for at the rate of time and one-half (1 1/2) hours for each hour worked in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek. The Department Head may authorize overtime to be paid in compensatory time at his/her discretion.

All work performed over 40 hours in a work week must have prior approval of the Employer. Scheduling of compensatory time is at the discretion of the Department Head.

ARTICLE 6 LENGTH OF SERVICE

Length of service means an employee's length of regular full-time continuous service with the Employer since their last date of hire.

An employee shall lose their length of service and the employment relationship shall be automatically broken and terminated if the employee quits, retires or is discharged.

ARTICLE 7 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The parties agree that an orderly and expeditious resolution of grievances is desirable. All matters of dispute that may arise between the Employer and an employee or employees regarding a violation, application or interpretation of the expressed provisions of this Agreement shall be adjusted in accordance with the following procedure:

Grievance Steps:

Step 1. An employee and/or Union Steward shall present a complaint or problem in writing to his/her immediate supervisor within five (5) working days following its occurrence or within five (5) working days of when the employee knew or should have known of its occurrence in an effort to resolve the problem in an informal manner. The immediate supervisor or his/her designated representative will answer the grievance in writing within five (5) working days.

Step 2. If the grievance is not settled in Step 1, the aggrieved employee and/or Union Steward shall present the grievance in writing to the Department Head within five (5) working days following the immediate supervisor's written answer. Within seven (7) working days, the Department Head will issue a written decision.

Step 3. If the grievance is not settled in Step 2, the aggrieved employee and/or Union Steward shall present the grievance in writing to the appropriate elected official/governing board. The elected official/governing board will review the grievance, schedule a meeting if necessary and issue a written decision within ten (10) working days of the appeal or within ten (10) working days of the meeting.

Step 4. Any grievance not settled in Step 3 of the grievance procedure may be referred to arbitration, providing the referral to arbitration is in writing to the other party and is made within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date of the elected official's answer given in Step 3. It is expressly agreed and understood that no employee shall have the right to compel the arbitration of a grievance without the consent of the Union. The Union Steward shall be present at the time of all meetings dealing with the grievance.

If a grievance is not presented within the time limits specified in this Article, it shall be considered waived. If a grievance is not appealed to the next Step within the specified time limits, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. If a grievance at any Step is not timely answered by the Employer, it may automatically be referred to the next Step. Timelines may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

After either party has notified the other of its referral of a case to arbitration, the parties will meet within ten (10) work days after receipt by either party of the notice of referral of a case to arbitration to select an arbitrator or to request, in writing, the Iowa Public Employment Relations Board to furnish a suggested list of names of seven (7) arbitrators from which list the parties shall select one (1) arbitrator. Such selection shall be by agreement, if possible; otherwise, by the parties alternately eliminating names from the list. The first strike shall be made by the party requesting arbitration. Each party can reject the entire arbitration panel one time prior to the selection procedure commencing. If either party deems the panel to be unacceptable, another panel will then be requested. Once the acceptable panel is received, the arbitrator is to be selected within fifteen (15) workdays.

After each party has eliminated the names of three (3) arbitrators from the list, the arbitrator whose name remains on the list shall be accepted by both parties as the arbitrator to meet and suggest a resolution to the pending case.

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator will be paid equally by the parties. Each party shall pay its own cost of preparation and presentation of arbitration. No stenographic transcript of the arbitration hearing shall be made unless requested by a party. The cost of stenographic reporting of the hearing shall be borne by the party requesting the same, except that the other party may request a copy of such transcript, in which case the parties shall equally divide the cost of stenographic reporting and of the transcripts. The arbitrator shall have no power to change, ignore, nullify, alter, detract from or add to the provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding on the parties.

All grievance and arbitration meetings under this Article are to be held in private and not open to the public, with the time and date to be established by the arbitrator for any arbitration hearings. Employees selected by the Union to act as Union representatives who may represent employees shall be certified in writing to the Employer by the Local Union.
